Maureen A. Frank – New Haven Bank

Maureen A. Frank , CEO with over 45 years of experience in progressively responsible roles with respected financial institutions culminating in two CEO positions. Maureen is currently President and CEO of New Haven Bank , a Certified Development Financial Institution (CDFI) . There are currently 175 financially insured financial institutions in the country and New Haven Bank is the only one in Connecticut. Serving the community is baked into the mission of New Haven Bank- more than 60% of its business is conducted in economically distressed communities.

Maureen began her career as a part time teller while attending community college. By 1993 she was an Executive Vice President – leading the daily operations of five divisions of a $5Billion savings bank which included 47 branches in 27 communities throughout Connecticut. She is now finishing her career at New Haven Bank which has stabilized and grown under her leadership. Maureen contributes her success to not only hard work and sacrifice but to always remembering that one is only as good as the people around them. She believes that mentoring employees is as important as serving your customers – if not more so.

Maureen has been active with many nonprofits and civic organizations throughout her career. She recently concluded her service as Legislative Committee Chair of the CBA and as an executive board member of Clifford Beers Mental Health in New Haven.
